

Perceiving Cultures: India-Japan Cross-Cultural Interactive Program

Don't miss this chance!

Konan International Exchange Center (KIEC) will organize an online interactive program 'Perceiving Cultures: India-Japan Cross-Cultural Interactive Program' in collaboration with the Department of Sociology, Rosary College of Commerce and Arts, Goa, India. The program aims at introducing and helping the students realize the socio-cultural aspects of both countries. This program will start on March 9 and will culminate on March 30. The students will be interacting with their Indian counterparts in small groups, discussing the theme: 'social life in India and Japan' which will cover folk culture, festivals, language, food, political, economic, and healthcare systems, etc. KIEC would like to invite students to take part in this great program (The maximum number of students will be 10. It will be first-come-first-served basis). The schedule of the program is shown below. All sessions will be in English and conducted online. The students are expected to take part in all three sessions.
